

Pittsburgh Football Club

Refund Policy

Refunds of Pittsburgh Football Club fees will only be granted for registered players who become unable to play due to medical reasons (a written doctor's confirmation is required), or because they are moving out of the area.

All refunds will incur a $25.00 administrative fee.

The Pittsburgh Football Club fee will only be refunded to players who become unable to play due to medical reasons (a written doctor's confirmation is required), or because they are moving out of the area, before the season starts.

Once a season starts the Pittsburgh Football Club fee can not be refunded.

A Pittsburgh Football club team may choose to refund a portion of players fees to an injured player. Each team operates under its own budgetary limitations and must determine its own policy to deal with refunds.

Adopted by the Pittsburgh Football club on February 15, 2005.
